BIRMINGHAM ANGEL NETWORK ANNOUNCES COMMUNITY ADVISORS BOARD

Officers in Related Startup Community Organizations to Provide Expertise

Birmingham, Ala – Birmingham Angel Network, LLC ("BAN") recently announced its formation of a Community Advisors Board to provide BAN and its management board, with expertise on macro trends and opportunities for collaboration in the business start-up community.

BAN's Community Advisors Board is composed of:

- Susan Matlock, President and CEO of the Innovation Depot, Inc.
- Dick Reeves, Executive Director of the Huntsville Angel Network
- Glenn Kinstler, Director of Alabama Launchpad
- Greg Curran, Past President Birmingham Venture Club, Maynard Cooper & Gale
- Curtis Palmer, Director of Birmingham Startup, CEO at ComplyMD

“We are extremely pleased that this distinguished group of executives has agreed to join Birmingham Angel Network’s Community Advisors Board,” said Josh Watkins, Executive Director of BAN. “Their knowledge, expertise and vision will be an invaluable asset in defining the organization and achieving our intended role as a catalyst for growth in our community.”

The Birmingham Angel Network is a group of executives, professionals, and accredited investors who are interested in investing their time and money into new, cutting edge, startup companies. Birmingham Angel Network is the only angel network in Birmingham and one of two in Alabama.
